1) It was a cold and rainy day in Athens. The sun was covered by the clouds.

2) Suddenly, John heard a noise. People were screaming loudly. He followed the noise and then he saw it...

3) I'm going to destroy this city

4) Quickly, John closed his eyes and turned into Flyman!

5) Flyman flew up to the boy and said...

6) He carefully took him and flew to an island. And he left him there

7) Then the police arrived and took the bad guy and went to prison.

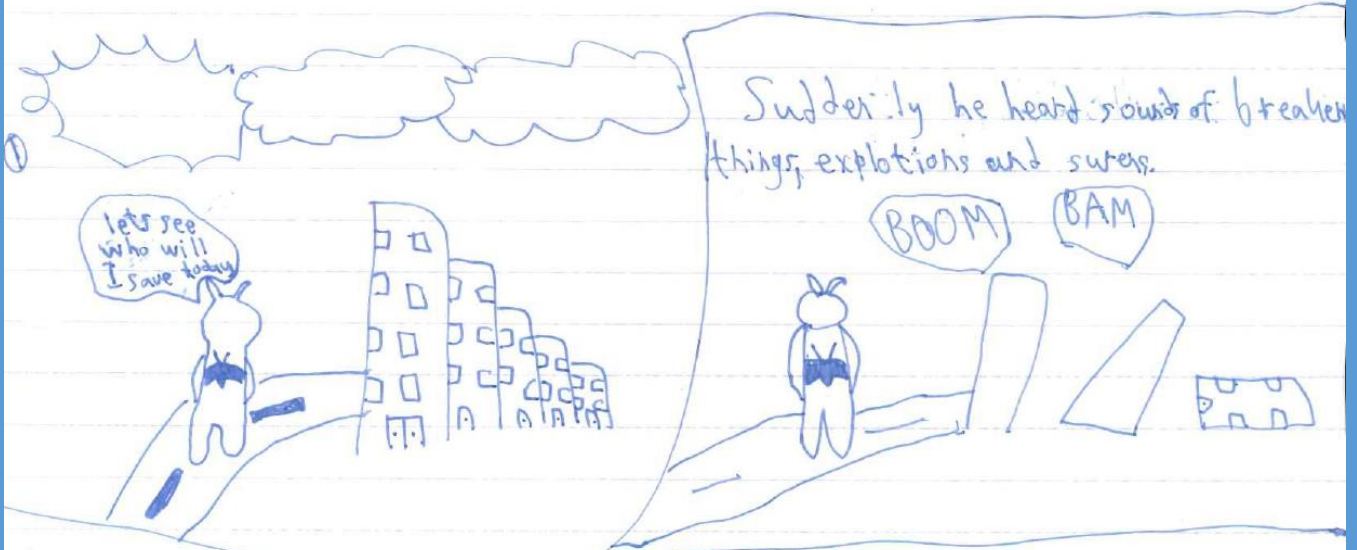

8) Thanks to Flyman Athens is safe.

It was a cold and rainy day in Petacity, The clouds were in front of the sun, and batman was walking.

And there he saw it. It was Toher! Bruce went fast and put on his suit.

And then after a rough fight batman won.

Alex Pouleres

It was a cold but sunny day of autumn in Colorfull city. Sophia was having a walk in the park.

Suddenly black and grey clouds go on the sky and started raining. Sophia heard a noise. People's screaming loud. She followed the noise and then she saw it.

A big, black, bad monster stepped out of the trees, made black and grey clouds and ate the colorful clouds. When the monster ate the colorful clouds it became bigger and bigger.

Quickly, Sophia said 'Monster I come to you!' and turned into Unigirl.

Unigirl flew up to the monster and put in his mouth a black and grey cloud. The monster became a little smaller.

Then she picked up the vase with the monster and threw in the sky.

Unigirl at once put in monster's mouth black and grey clouds and the monster became very small like her hand span. She closes it in a small vase.

Thanks to Unigirl, Colorfull city was safe again. Now the Colorfull city is with colorful clouds again.

ANCIENT GREEK GODS

and MYTHS

C' Senior

Zeus is my favorite Greek God. He is the king of the Gods and rules over the Mount Olympus. As the God of the sky, thunder and lightning, Zeus wields a powerful thunderbolt that can strike fast onto anyone who crosses him. He is also known for maintaining order and justice, ensuring the balance of the world and overseeing the gods and mortals. Zeus is a complex figure while he can be stern and powerful, he is also compassionate and protective of those he cares about. His leadership, strength and wisdom make him one of the most iconic and fascinating figures in Greek mythology.

The myth.....

I want to add one last thing, a myth of his. The myth is called “Titanomachia”. Zeus led the Olympian gods in a war against the Titans, Zeus and his siblings (Poseidon, Hades, Hera, Demeter and Hestia) defeated the Titans and imprisoned them in Tartarus. This victory solidified Zeus’s role as the ruler of the gods and the sky.

Bill Pasvagas

Demeter, the Greek goddess of agriculture, harvest and fertility, is a figure deeply connected to the cycles of nature. She is often depicted as a nurturing mother, with her abundance ensuring the fertility of the earth and the prosperity of its people.

Demeter is best known for her role in the myth of her daughter Persephone, whom Hades abducted to the Underworld. Demeter's grief and anger caused the earth to fall barren, leading to the creation of the seasons. Her deep love for Persephone and her power over the harvest symbolized the importance of the earth's cycles in Greek society, reflecting the dependency of human life on the land.

Through Demeter, the Greeks understood the intimate relationship between life, death, and rebirth in the natural world. She is not only a mother figure but also a symbol of the enduring connection between humankind and the Earth's fertility.

Dimitra Pasvaga

Artemis is the goddess of nature, wild animals and the hunt. Goddess Artemis' twin brother is God Apollo. Apollo is the god of music, dance and prophecy.

Apollo's and Artemis' parents are Leces and Lito. Lito gave birth to them on the island of Delos. Delos used to be in constant movement, swinging all the time, but when Lito gave birth to Artemis, the island stopped swinging. One myth about the goddess Artemis is that of the deer with the golden horns.

The deer with the golden horns was a present from Nymph Taygete to goddess Artemis. One of the Heracles' labours has to do with the deer with the gold horns. While fighting to catch the deer, Hercules broke one of the deer's horns. Goddess Artemis never forgave him and their relationship was never restored.

The myth.....

Another favorite myth of mine is that with Athina and Poseidon fighting over Athens. Poseidon offered sea water to the people. Athina offered them the first olive tree. However, the people liked the olive tree more than the sea water. If Poseidon had won the competition, the town would have been called Poseidonia.

Zeus is the God of light in Greek mythology. He was the youngest kid of Kronos and Rea. His brothers and sisters are Hera, Poseidon, Pluton, Hestia and Dimitra. Myth has it that he was married to Hera.

However, according to the Oracle of Delphi he was married to Dodoni. He is famous for his romantic adventures. The Centaur Chiron was his half-brother.

Somehow he is the father of all the twelve gods but he is the youngest child of his brothers and sisters. He is my favorite god out of the twelve because he is cool and strong.

Jimmy Bakoulis

My favorite god is Hermes. He is really strong and tall. He is very fast because of his little flying sandals.

He has a very important job in Olympus because he is the messenger of the Gods. Also he takes the souls of dead people to the underworld.

That is why his name in Greek was “Psychopompos”. He was a superhuman. His strength and stamina were unique. Also, he could run and fly at very fast speeds. One of his stories has to do with the Titans war. He became invisible and helped his father Zeus to kill the other titans.

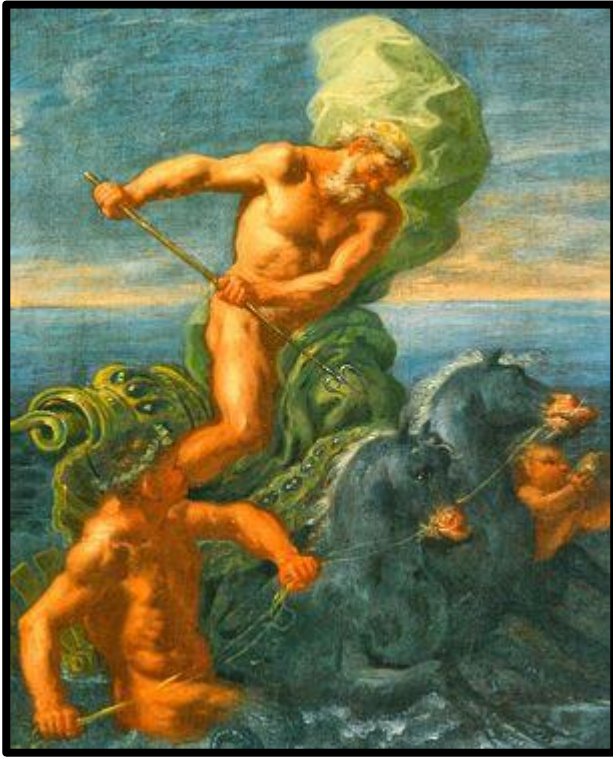

I admire him because he never stops trying for the best of human kind.

Alex Pouleres

Poseidon is one of the most powerful gods in ancient Greek mythology. He is the god of the sea, oceans and all the waters on earth.

People believe that Poseidon could control the waves. He lived in a beautiful palace under the sea. He is also known for being very strong. Sometimes he gets angry and causes huge waves but he can also be kind and help people when they need it.

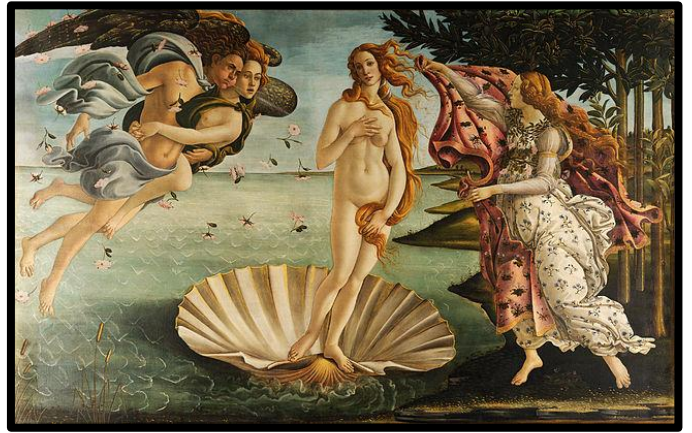

Many animals, like dolphins and horses were under his care and he was said to have created the first horse. Poseidon is an important and exciting character in Greek mythology.

My favorite goddess is Afrodity. Afrodity is the goddess of beauty. She was born from the sea. In the Greek language her name means “risen from the foam”. She is the mother of cupid, the god of love.

The myth...

My favorite myth is that of Pandora's. Pandora was created by Zeus, Athena and Hephaestus. Afrodity gave her the ability to charm all men and Hermes that of trickery. Then, they breathed life into her. She was given a box of clay as a gift. However, she was instructed not to open it. Pandora was very curious to find out what was inside it though, so one day she opened it. But then all calamities overflowed. Monsters, illnesses, awful sounds rushed out of it. Pandora was terrified and started crying, realizing the evil she had set free. As she was weeping, she heard a soft voice coming from the box. This was a light that eased her pain. Along with all the evil, Pandora had also set Hope free!

Georgia Bertsoikli

Ares, is the son of Zeus and Hera, but the myth says that Hera became pregnant with Ares by smelling a flower given to her by the goddess Anthousa.

Also, it is said that was the one who helped the Trojans in the Trojan war.

Ares is the god of war and one of the Twelve of the Olympians. He has the armor and style of epic heroes and fights with ferocity that is unique to him. He sometimes fights on foot and he is so strong that he can destroy whole towns!

Chris Bilalis

My favorite god is Hephaestus. He is the god of fire and metal. One myth about Hephaestus has to do with his birth. His mom, Hera, made him without Zeus. Second myth about him is peculiar. Homer says that Hephaestus was born with one crippled leg. Zeus kicked him from Olympus and thus broke the normal leg.

He lived inside a volcano, was a blacksmith and he used to build weapons and create thunders. Hephaestus lived alone because nobody wanted him. He was the ugliest of the gods. Hephaestus had only one eye. He lost the other when Zeus kicked him. Zeus made him leave Olympus because Zeus and Hera had a fight and Hephaestus stood by his mum. His house is in Etna in Sicily and his helpers are the Cyclopes.

Once upon a time.....

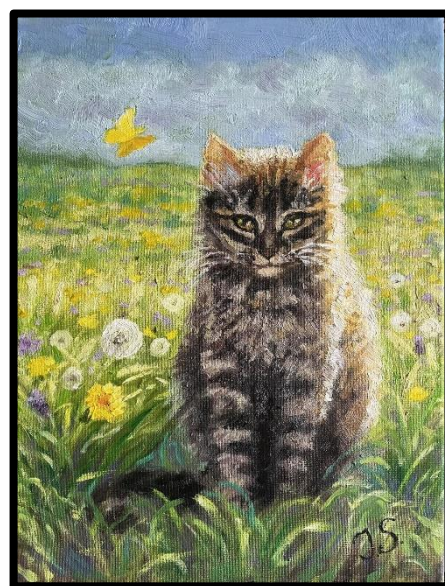

There was a boy whose name was Kim. Kim was a very good boy and a good student, too. He loved his family and cats. He lived in a small house near a big park.

One Saturday evening he had his party for his birthday. While Kim was blowing out the candles of his birthday, he wished: “ I hope I get a cat”. The party was over at 10 o'clock. He had a great time!

But something went wrong! When Kim saw his face in the mirror he saw .....a cat!!!!!!!

He didn't believe his eyes.

Evangelia Vintzilaiou
C' Senior

He ran to the park, to think what to do. But while he was sitting, he could hear strange voices. The voices were coming from cats. He could understand and talk with them, so, he asked:

K: what's wrong with me?

C: Your wish came true.

K: Oh! No, no, no, no, no!

C: That's what you asked for. Aren't you happy?

K: No, no, no, no, no !! I asked for a cat, not to be one!!

C: Kim, you never play with your friends. You always play with us. You spend more time with cats than your family.

K: No, no, no, no! I'm a human and I want to be a human! I love my friends and my family too!

C: You have to wait until your next birthday.

K: No, no, no, no, no!!!! I can't go home like this!

C: If you want to be a human, you must change your name , you will be called Kim Cat! Or else you will be a cat again.

The next day, Kim asked his friends to call him Kim Cat. Nobody knew why.....

.....Only Kim and his cat friends.

Escape room frenzy

Jimmy Bakoulis
C' Senior

Escape rooms are life-like puzzle games, which are played by pairs or groups of players, where usually the players are actually locked in one or more rooms. The goal is for the team to escape within a given short period of time, depending on what the topic will be, solving a series of puzzles or guests.

The time span varies from 60 minutes to 3 hours. Escape room themes are usually set in imaginary locations, such as prison cells, spaceships, haunted houses or even enchanted forests. It is probable that the first escape game was created in 2004 on computer and escape rooms quickly became known all over the world, starting from the United States, Japan, Taiwan, Israel and China.

In 2012 the first rooms began to be built in Europe and Russia. One of the most important elements of escape games is that they attract people of all ages. It is not only an activity for children or only for groups of friends, but it is also a way of having fun and strengthening relationships.

According to a global survey, 37% of players are over 21 years old, 14% are families with young children, while about 19% are under 21 years old. According to the same research, 15% of the teams are only men, 15% only women, while the remaining 70% are teams with players of both sexes. On average, the teams consist of 4 people.

You can explore the nature, you can also take photos to send to your friends and your family. In my opinion it's a perfect place to spend your summer holidays.

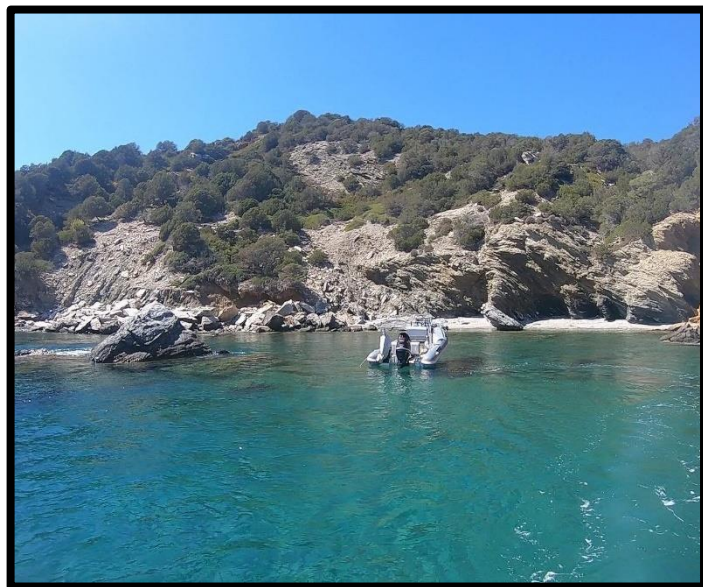

Close to Thessaloniki there are clean seas, small forests and very friendly people all around. In town there are beautiful houses with their gardens, interesting plants and happy kids who play with their friends on the road. There are a lot of cute dogs and cats which need a safe environment to live.

My family and I go there every summer and we stay in a camping for one month. I have fun because I swim and ride my bike all day long. I feel so free and relaxed there.

origami!!!❤️

Androniki Katsarou
B' Senior

Origami comes from the Japanese words for “fold” and “paper”. The history of origami includes both Japan and China. The art of paper folding was popular in Japan but the origin of origami happened earlier in China.

Paper origami was first used by monks who brought the paper and ideas for its folding to Japan from China in the sixth century. Japanese origami it was used for decorating temples and shrines.

The wealthy who could afford paper, which was expensive at the time, could enjoy origami. As paper in the early years was valuable, it was not to be cut or wasted, but to be treasured.

Special abilities basketball players must have

*Alex Pouleres
C' Senior*

Basketball is one of the most popular sports in the world. If you want to be a top level basketball player, it might be a good idea to follow the instructions bellow.

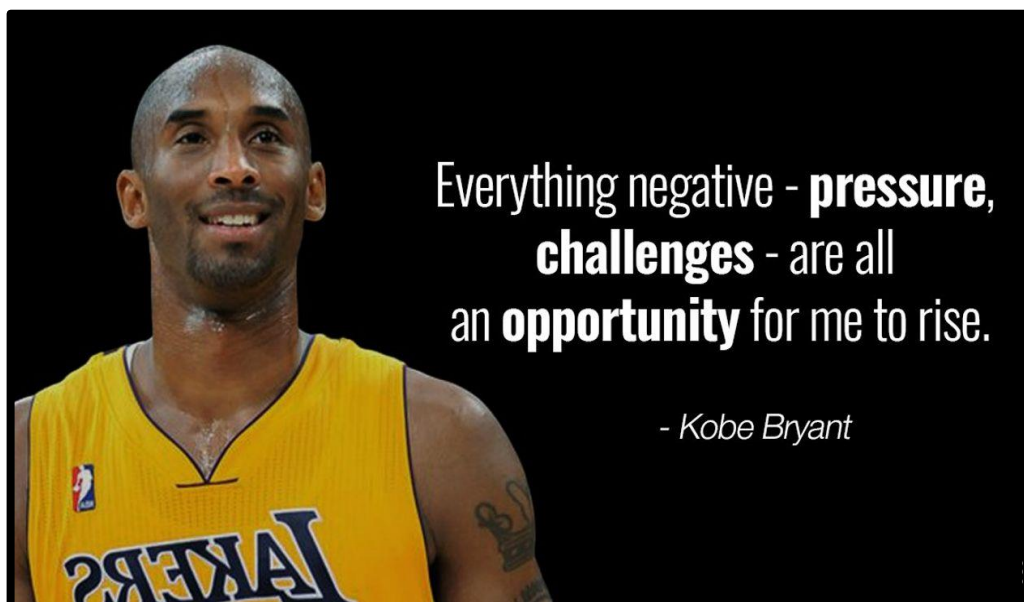

A good basketball player has to train every day and listen to his coach at all times. He must give it all when it comes to defend and focus on his match up. Of course when he makes a mistake he mustn't think about it all the time, but learn from this mistake and improve. Also, it's very important to be a team player and share the ball with the rest of the teammates. Of course he shouldn't think only about himself, but about the team as a whole.

He mustn't be angry with his teammates during the game and he must express his opinion to the team in a nice and polite way. On the other hand, it's also important to show respect to his opponents whether he wins or loses the game. Additionally, he shouldn't care about the referee's calls, but keep playing instead.

Last but not least, a good basketball player has to be mentally prepared before the game. To achieve that he has to train hard before and after the game and never get disappointed. Otherwise, as one of the greatest basketball players, Giannis Antetokoumpo said: "There is no failure in sports, there is only steps to success".

LET'S HAVE SOME FUN!

Teacher to Danny: Danny, why you are not writing?

Danny: Madam, I don't has a pen

Teacher: Danny, you said a wrong sentence. The correct form is I don't have a pen, he doesn't have a pen and we don't have a pen.

Danny: oh Madam! Who stole all the pens then?!

Johnny: Teacher, would you punish me for something I didn't do?

Teacher: Of course not.

Johnny: Good, because I didn't do my homework.

Nate: Why was school easier for cave people?

Kate: Why?

Nate: Because there was no history to study!
